GRAND CAMP NOTES.

There were three hundred Sons of Veteras in the parade yesterday, a greater number than has ever attended a similar cethering.

A most excellent report was that on his-tory presented to the Sons by R. S. Black-burn Smith. It closed with the recom-mendation that a new office be created by the State government—a department of archives—the object of which will be to recure histories and names of those from Virginia who took part in the wer. This is in line with the suggestion made by the Committee on Good of the Camp of the Veterans. It is thought the office will cost $2.900 wearly.

TO-DAY ON GRIDIRON

Richmond College Plays Hampden-Sidney in Norfolk

GAME AT BROAD-ST. PARK

Randolph-Macon and William and Mary Will Have a Set-To-Yale and Columbia, Princeton and Cornell Will Meet To-Day.

To-day will be a great one in the football world in this State and all over th country. A game will be played in this city at Broad-Street Park at 8:15 o'clock in which the elevens from Randolph-Macon College, of Ashland, and William and Mary College, at Williamsburg, will be the contestants. Both teams are aspirants for honors in the State Intercollegiate Association. Randolph-Macon has ginte Association. Randolph-Macon has been beaten by Hampden-Sidney in a close game, but has a very good team, and will be apt to surprise the boys from the coincial capital when they line up this afternoon. Little is known of the strength of the Wilam and Mary team, but the boys from that institution usually play a good game. Interest in the contest is great by reason of the fact that Randalph-Macon's eleven is soon to play Richmond College, and to-day's game will give great by reason of the fact that Randalph-Macon's eleven is soon to play Richmond College, and to-day's game will give an idea of the result. Both teams expect a large turnout of their alumni, many of whom reside in this city.

At the same hour, on Lafayette field, in Norfolk, the Richmond College eleven will be engaged in a spirited struggle with the Humpden-Sidney boys, and the Presbyterians, having defeated Randalph-Macon, are regarded as the most formidable aspirants for the intercollegiate championship of the State. The Richmond College team left last night for Norfolk, accompanied by many of the students, and the loys will be quartered at the Aliantic Dr. Foushee will be with the boys.

The following went down on the Brandon last night: Frazer, Woodin, Sutherland, Hudgins, Snead, Rollings, Anderton, Fowell, Webster, Mence, Kenney, Harweod, Toombes, Spilman, Bradshaw, Wright, Lankford, Vail, Alley and Hiram M. Smith. The footers will include Wynne, Garrett, Taber, Carver, Freeman, Wright, Willis, Cole, Ryland, Pollard, Bragg, Thomas and some forty others.

VIRGINIA'S AND CAROLINA'S GAMES Many games will be played on other fields. The University of Virginia has fields. The University of Virginia has arranged a gonie with Davidson College, N. C., and the University of North Carolina will play the Kentucky University coven, which was recently barely defeated by the University of Virginia, ethe crange and blue winning by 6 to 0. Upon the showing made by North Carolina against the Kentucklans an idea of the telative strength of Virginia and Carolina may be laid. If Carolina wins by a better score than did Virginia, it will irdicate that the Chapel Hill men are nearly or quite up to the Virginia standard.

THE GREAT NORTHERN TEAMS.

In the North Yale will tackle the hardest proposition it has yet encountered in the strong Columbia eleven, conquerors of Penssylvania and of Amherst, which defeated Harvard. Yale has not played its usual strong defensive game this year, having been twice scored on by opponents. Yale ought to win to-day, but it will be by a narrow margin in all probability. Princeton has a formidable opponent for to-day in the Cornell eleven. The strength of the Ithacans is hard to gauge, the eleven having met no really formidable opponents except Bucknell, which it defeated 6 to 0. Princeton has made the best showing of any Eastern team thus far, no opponent having crossed its goal line or scored by a field goal even. It is a fast, well coached team, full of sand and ginger, with a quarrette of the fastest and most experienced backs on the gridiron; and with Bewitt, the great punter and drop kicker of the season, who can land a field goal four out of five trial. Princeton is the favorite to win, but the score will not be large.

PENN TACKLES BUCKNELL.

Pennsylvania will go up against a hard struggle with Bucknell, which has proved one of the most formidable elevens in the East. The Philadelphia men, smarting over their recent defeat by Columbia, are due for a brillant game, and should crush the Bucknellians. ard.

men said they were not aware that they were suspected of a guilty knowledge of their sister's murder. They denied emphatically that the girl, was killed in her own home on Sunday night, and declared she was not at home that night.

The police officials say they searched Thomas Bechtel thoroughly before he was placed in a cell. They believe he shad the knife with which he killed himself hidden in a shoe.

Information was to-day lodged against Mrs. Catherine Bechtel, Miss Myrtha Bechtel, John and Charles Bechtel, charging them as accessories after the fact in the murder of Mabel Bechtel.

The inquest was resumed this afternoon. Police officers testified to finding bloodstops of the Bechtel, Mrs. Probst, wail paper and floor.

Mrs. Bechtel, Miss Bechtel, Mrs. Probst, and married daughter; John and Charles Bechtel and Eckstein were separately called before the Jury, Each refused to answer any question whatsoever, stating that they might say something that would tend to incriminate themselves. It was while Mrs. Bechtel was in the court-room that she learned that Thomas was dead. Her attorney, Mr. Schaadt, asked Chief Eastman: "Where is Thomas now?" The chief hesitated and said: "I guess at the morgue. He committed suicide in his cell yesterday."

The trial has been one of the most sensational in the history of Western Michigan. The romance which led up to Baker's proposing marriage to the young woman began when both-were students at Olivet College. Several letters written to Miss Adams by Baker were read in court, and a number from the young woman to the defendant were also introduced as evidence. Baker's letters were, many of them, very sensational and improper.

The Unkindest Cut.

Mr. Bonnett Musson, author of Maisle and Hier Dog Snip in Fairyland, just published by the Harpers, waited seven years before his first magazine story was accepted, and then received word that the editor wished to see him. He arrival at the editorial sanctum, only to be informed that the story was good, and that if it could be cut from 1,000 words to 400 it would be published in the magazine. The young author attacked what he considered this work of butchery, and found it the hardest effort of all his seven years of struggle; but it was finally accomplished, and much to his surprise the tale did not seen to suffer mate lally from the process. Since then Mr. Musson has published many stories that required ne occurred.
